Canyon High Receives Award from Second Harvest Food Bank

ORANGE, Calif., February 1, 2011—The Orange Unified School District is pleased to announce that Canyon High School has been awarded the Top Provider for 2010 from the Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County. This is the second consecutive year that the Canyon High community has donated the most food to Second Harvest.

Lorina Smith, Second Harvest's Food Resource Coordinator, presented Canyon's ASB with a trophy along with words of congratulations. "Over two hundred schools throughout Orange County donated to Second Harvest, and for the second year in a row Canyon High School was the top provider with over 10,300 pounds of food donated," said Mrs. Smith.

Canyon's ASB President, Carl Moos stated, "It is impressive that all of our classes showed a passion for this cause. They went above and beyond."

Dr. Greg Bowden, Canyon High Principal, added, "I am really proud of the fact that with a community that has so many opportunities, that our kids really care about the world around them."

Second Harvest Food Bank works with partner agencies to distribute food throughout Orange County to families in need.
