Orange High Students Excelling in Academics and Athletics

ORANGE, Calif., April 25, 2011—The Orange Unified School District is pleased to announce there are exciting happenings on the campus of Orange High School.

- Elie Wiesel, Nobel Peace Prize recipient, Holocaust survivor and author of more than fifty books, and Distinguished Presidential Fellow at Chapman University recently spoke to students who submitted winning entries in the 12th Annual Holocaust Art and Writing Contest sponsored by Chapman. The following students were invited to attend the event:
  - Art- Senior Carlos Cardenas (Ms. Jollineau)
  - Essay- Freshman Jennifer Paulino (Ms. Weilenga)
  - Poetry- Freshman Alexandra Flores (Ms. Petersen)
- Instrumental Music recently participated in a Soundtrack Session at Disneyland during a field trip. They experienced a recording session in a real recording studio and were able to experience what it is like to be a professional musician. At the end of the session, they were able to hear and see their recordings synced with actual clips from Disney movies.
- OHS Girls' basketball players were invited guests to attend a luncheon at Chapman University to honor them at the conclusion of their season.
- J/V and Varsity Cheer teams performed at Nationals last month and Varsity took 5th place in their division. The OHS Stunt Group went to finals and placed 6th out of 28 teams while J/V had their best performance all season.

The Orange Unified School District is located at 1401 North Handy Street in Orange, CA
