Canyon High Student Wins FBI Internet Safety Award

ORANGE, Calif., May 26, 2011—The Orange Unified School District is pleased to announce that Canyon High School Student, Alec Fortine, is the national high school winner of the FBI Safe Surfing Online Internet Challenge.

Canyon High School DREAM Program teacher, Susan Damon, had her students participate in the Carnegie Mellon University ALICE Software Competition. This year, in conjunction with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, students entered a PSA (public service announcement) about cyber safety. Mrs. Damon has participated in the Carnegie Mellon student challenge events for several years and was very excited to have a winner.

As the national winner, Alec will receive a visit from the FBI awarding him the trophy tonight at 6:30 p.m. at Canyon High's Senior Awards Ceremony.

The Orange Unified School District is located at 1401 North Handy Street in Orange, CA
