Erratt Named Outstanding Customer Service Award Winner

ORANGE, Calif., June 15, 2011—The Orange Unified School District is proud to announce that Dr. John Erratt, Special Education Teacher, Villa Park High School, has been named recipient of the Outstanding Customer Service Employee Award for the month of June.

Dr. Erratt, who has worked at Villa Park High School for the past eight years, said of the award, “Receiving this award really acknowledges all of the work of OUSD special education teachers and, indeed, all the OUSD teachers in providing high quality education for our students with equal access for all.”

In addition to his current position, he has served as Education Specialist, moderate-severe teaching an autism-focus class for the past five years, Special Education Department Chair at VPHS for the past four years. Dr. Erratt also developed and taught autism authorization credential courses for OUSD teachers for past year.

Finally, Dr. Erratt said, “I love having the opportunity to support students with significant life challenges and their families while watching them grow into self confident young adults over the four years that I am part of their lives.”

He was recognized at the Board of Education’s most recent meeting by Board President Mr. Rick Ledesma.

The Orange Unified School District is located at 1401 North Handy Street in Orange, CA
