Red Ribbon Week

Every year, schools celebrate Red Ribbon Week to remind students how important it is to be drug free and bully free and to live a healthy lifestyle.

Prospect Elementary School celebrated Red Ribbon Week from October 24–28. On Monday, we wore red, white, and blue to “Vote for Your Future—Say No to Bullying!” On Tuesday, we wore Hawaiian clothes to “Surf the Healthy Food Wave.” On Wednesday, we wore neon colors to say “The Future Is Bright

When You Are Drug Free!” On Thursday, we wore Western clothing to “Give Drugs and Bullies the Boot!” And on Friday, we wore red to say, “YOLO! Be Good to Your Body!”

Mrs. Bolton, our school psychologist, visited every classroom to share about the harmful effects of bullying. Classes also tied red ribbons on the fence, and our student council sold glow bracelets to signify that our future is bright here at Prospect!
