Celebrating Dr. Seuss!

Our Warriors welcomed in March by celebrating Read Across America Week and Dr. Seuss Day. Classrooms opened their portals to Whoville on Monday through their decorated doors. The Morning Reading Club enjoyed Dr. Seuss books daily. During their library visit, students were introduced to Theodor Geisel and his playful use of language through tongue-twisting storytelling and imaginative word construction.

On Tuesday, students, teachers and staff donned red-and-white stripes and polka dots. Third-graders took the Cat in the Hat stacking challenge in the STEM lab. There appeared to be an increased number of twins and blue-haired students roaming the halls on Wednesday for “Thing 1 and Thing 2...There Is Two of You!” Day!

On Dr. Seuss's birthday, Warriors celebrated in Fox in Socks style by wearing crazy socks and taking the Tongue Twister Challenge. On Thursday, students enjoyed classroom readers.

Whoville's portals closed on Friday with a “Who from Whoville are you?” Dress-Up Day and Parade.
